VALTTERI BOTTAS C43

Official Timekeeper of Alfa Romeo F1 Team, Rebellion Timepieces unveils two special series dedicated to Valtteri Bottas and Zhou Guanyu. In order to share some of the thrill of competition, the drivers and Rebellion Timepieces wanted to incorporate a fragment of their Alfa Romeo F1 Team C43 into each timepiece.

Valtteri Bottas began his F1 career in 2013 and the following year he claimed his first podiums. His exemplary consistency allowed him to finish seven times in the Top 5 of the final ranking in 10 years. Since the start of this year, he is at the wheel of the Alfa Romeo C43, number 77, his favorite number with which he has distinguished himself since 2014.

The Re-Volt Valtteri Bottas C43, designed for and with Bottas, pays tribute to this incredible driver. The sculptural case machined in colored carbon adopts the colors of Bottas's flag, Finland.

In addition, each watch features a piece from his single-seater. Each piece of carbon taken has a visible identification number and is attached to a sideplate on the case body. The plate also bears the name and number of Valtteri Bottas.
